

Short-Term Training Course On

LAND ECO-RESTORATION FOR CLIMATE RESILIENCE,
NATURAL RESOURCE CONSERVATION
AND OTHER ENVIRONMENTAL BENEFITS

WWW.CROWDFORESTING.ORG

Conducted At

Dr. MIYAWAKI MEMORIAL

LIVE NATURE LAB

PULIYARAKONAM,

TRIVANDRUM, KERALA,

INDIA

WWW.CROWDFORESTING.ORG

Course Overview

- Ecosystem restoration or ecological restoration.
- Moderating the impacts of human disturbances associated with urbanization, energy development, poor land management, and natural resource extraction.
- Provide an understanding of the process of assisting in the recovery of damaged or destroyed ecosystems.

A photograph of a dense forest with sunlight filtering through the trees, framed by a dark green background with light green decorative shapes in the corners.

Course Objectives

To provide the trainee with the skills and knowledge, needed to restore any ecosystem that has been degraded, damaged or destroyed.

WWW.CROWDFORESTING.ORG

Course Duration: 29th May – 2nd June

Days include lecture presentations, discussions, practical sessions, field visits and trekking.

Course trainees/participants

Students, teachers, and representatives of local administration, corporate bodies, self-help/voluntary groups and nature enthusiasts.

Course Eligibility

Plus-two and above, passion/commitment to environmental protection. No age bar.

WWW.CROWDFORESTING.ORG

COURSE CONTENT

The following modules will be covered through lectures by sector experts, discussions, field visit/demonstrations and short videos (educational content).

WWW.CROWDFORESTING.ORG

- Module-01: Our Environment
- Module-02: Ecosystems: Concepts, Assessment and Management
- Module-03: Biodiversity and Conservation
- Module-04: Climate change: Causes, consequences and challenges
- Module-05: Ecosystem restoration: principles, approaches and tools
- Module-06: Miyawaki model afforestation
- Module-07: Thematic greening/Eco-restoration, Field/exposure visits and trekking

- Exposure visits to Miyawaki model forested landscape of the Nature Lab, other selected sites of Miyawaki projects, riverine belts, etc.
- Demonstration/hands-on training of land preparation and nursery techniques .
- Trekking to wilderness area (10 hours, excluding travel).

Course Evaluation

On successful completion of the training course, evaluation is done through an online test with objective-type questions followed by grading and issue of certificate.

Certificates

AGES, the NGO with 20 years of experience in the eco restoration and related sectors, will issue the certificate. AGES is provisionally accredited by UNCCD

WWW.CROWDFORESTING.ORG

Dates: 29 May – 2 June, 2024

Admission closes on: 25 May 2024

Course Fee: Rs. 12,000 per student plus GST@18%

Accommodation: Accommodation and food for outstation students at additional charges.

WWW.CROWDFORESTING.ORG

Previous Courses

WWW.CROWDFORESTING.ORG

MIYAWAKI MODEL NATURE STUDY CENTRE

Contact us

Tel /Whats App: + 91 99951 34224, 9895529306

Email ID: info@agesindia.org

Website: www.agesindia.in

For more video resources

Visit: www.youtube.com/crowdforesting
www.crowdforesting.org

WWW.CROWDFORESTING.ORG